Report on the Financial Statements

Management’s Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor’s Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity’s preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity’s internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Corporation as of December 31, 2017, and the results of its operations, changes in net deficit, and its cash flows for the year then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

ABHOW continues to manage the Terraces of Phoenix under a multi-year management agreement. The current amended agreement expires in October 2022. Under the management agreement, a base management fee equal to 6% of the Corporation's revenues is payable to ABHOW (5%) and Cornerstone (1%) monthly. In conjunction with the Corporation's December 2015 replacement financing (see Note 6), a new subordination agreement was put into place that limits the payment of management fees to 8.0% of revenue and subordinates such payments to satisfaction of the terms of the financing obligation. At December 31, 2017, the Corporation had met the performance measures for repayment. Management fee expenses and payments of approximately $1,229,000 were recognized for the year ended December 31, 2017.

NOTE 2 – ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Use of Estimates – The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles (“U.S. GAAP”) in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reported periods. Significant items subject to such estimates and assumptions include the fair value of interest rate swap; allowances for contractual and uncollectible accounts receivable; fair value of investments; future service benefit obligation; rebatable entrance fees due; entrance fees subject to refund; and entrance fees non-refundable. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

New Accounting Pronouncements – In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606). As compared to existing guidance on revenue recognition, ASU No. 2014-09 will significantly enhance comparability of revenue recognition practices across entities, industries, jurisdictions, and capital markets. The largely principles-based guidance in ASU No. 2014-09 will provide a framework for addressing revenue recognition issues comprehensively for entities that apply U.S. GAAP in addition to those entities that apply International Financial Reporting Standards. The guidance in ASU No. 2014-09 also improves U.S. GAAP by reducing the number of requirements to which an entity must consider in recognizing revenue, as well as requires improved disclosures to help users of financial statements better understand the nature, amount, timing, and uncertainty of revenue that is recognized. The effective date of ASU No. 2014-09 was deferred by ASU No. 2015-14, Deferral of the Effective Date, and is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2017, and interim periods within those fiscal years. Management is currently evaluating the impact of the provisions of ASU No. 2014-09 on the Corporation’s financial statements.

In January 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-01, Financial Instruments-Overall (Subtopic 825-10): Recognition and Measurement of Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities. ASU No. 2016-01 requires equity investments to be measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognized in net income; simplifies the impairment assessment of equity investments without readily determinable fair values by requiring a qualitative assessment to identify impairment; and eliminates the requirement for public business entities to disclose the method(s) and significant assumptions used to estimate the fair value that is required to be disclosed for financial instruments measured at amortized cost on the balance sheet. ASU No. 2016-01 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2018, and interim periods within those fiscal years. It is not anticipated that ASU No. 2016-01 will have an impact on the Corporation’s financial statements.

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842), which requires lessees to recognize a liability associated with obligations to make payments under the terms of the arrangement in addition to a right-of-use asset representing the lessee’s right to use, or control the use of, the given asset assumed under the lease. The standard will be effective for nonpublic business entities beginning after December 15, 2019. Early adoption is permitted. The Corporation is currently evaluating this new standard and the impact it will have on its financial statements.

In August 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-14, Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958): Presentation of Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Entities, which changes the presentation of financial statements and related disclosures unique to not-for-profits. This includes changes such as combining temporarily and permanently restricted net assets, disclosing amounts and purposes of board-designated funds, requiring the placed-in-service approach for long-lived assets to be used, and the presentation of the statement of cash flows. This standard will be effective for annual financial statements beginning after December 15, 2017, and for interim periods beginning after December 15, 2018. The Corporation is currently evaluating this new standard and the impact it will have on its financial statements.

In August 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-15, Statement of Cash Flows (Topic 230): Classification of Certain Cash Receipts and Cash Payments, which provides guidance on eight cash flow classification issues where current U.S. GAAP is either unclear or does not include specific guidance. The standard will be effective for nonpublic business entities for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2018. The Corporation is currently evaluating this new standard and the impact it will have on its financial statements.

In November 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-18, Statement of Cash Flows (Topic 230): Restricted Cash, which requires the statement of cash flows to explain the change during the period in the total of cash, cash equivalents, and amounts generally described as restricted cash or restricted cash equivalents. U.S. GAAP currently does not include specific guidance on the cash flow classification and presentation of changes in restricted cash or restricted cash equivalents other than limited guidance for not-for-profit entities. The standard will be effective for nonpublic business entities for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2018. The Corporation is currently evaluating this new standard and the impact it will have on its financial statements.

Cash and Cash Equivalents – Cash and cash equivalents are defined as cash on hand, demand deposits with financial institutions, and overnight investments considered to be cash equivalents. Accounts at each institution are insured in limited amounts by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (“FDIC”) and Securities Investor Protection Corporation. The Corporation has cash balances in financial institutions that are in excess of FDIC limits. Management monitors the financial condition of these institutions on an ongoing basis and does not believe significant credit risk exists at this time.

Investments – Investments include certain cash equivalents held by investment managers, mutual funds, domestic corporate debt securities, and U.S. government securities.

Restricted Investments – Certain investments are restricted as assets held in trust. These include assets held by the trustee in accordance with the indentures relating to debt agreements. Assets held in trust are classified as restricted investments.

Investment income (including realized gains and losses on marketable securities, interest, and dividends) is included in the accompanying statements of operations and changes in net deficit. Realized gains and losses for mutual funds are computed using the average cost method. Historical cost, or the specific identification method, is utilized to compute the realized gains and losses for all other securities. Upon determination that the cost of securities is other-than-temporarily impaired, adjustments are made to revalue the securities to current market value. Any adjustments required by this policy for unrestricted assets are charged to investment gains and losses.

Resident Accounts Receivable – The Corporation provides services to residents even though they may lack adequate funds or may participate in programs that do not pay full charges. The Corporation receives payment for health services from residents, insurance companies, Medicare, Medicaid, HMOs, and other third-party payors. As a result, the Corporation is exposed to certain credit risks. The Corporation manages its risk by regularly reviewing its accounts, by providing appropriate allowances for uncollectible accounts, and by having secured the accounts through the Care and Residence Agreements with the residents of the Community. Unrealized gains and losses are recorded in other changes in net deficit (see Note 4).

Resident accounts receivable are stated at the amount management expects to collect. If necessary, management provides for probable uncollectible amounts through a charge to earnings and a credit to a valuation allowance based on its assessment of the current status of individual balances. Balances that are still outstanding after management has used reasonable collection efforts are written off through a charge to the valuation allowance and credit to resident accounts receivable.

Land, Buildings, and Equipment – Land, buildings, and equipment are recorded at cost, or fair value when received, if donated. The cost basis includes any interest, finance charges, and other related costs capitalized during construction. Maintenance and repair costs are charged to operations when incurred.

Depreciation of buildings and equipment is computed on the straight-line method using estimated useful lives of 3 to 40 years. When assets are retired or otherwise disposed of, the cost of the asset and its related accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts, and any resulting gain or loss is recognized in income for the period.

Asset Impairment – The Corporation periodically evaluates the carrying value of its long-lived assets for impairment. The evaluations address the estimated recoverability of the assets' carrying value, which is principally determined based on projected undiscounted cash flows generated by the underlying tangible assets. When the carrying value of an asset exceeds estimated recoverability, an asset impairment is recognized. No asset impairment was recognized during the year ended December 31, 2017.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments – Unless otherwise indicated, the fair value of all reported assets and liabilities that represent financial instruments approximate their carrying values. The Corporation's policy is to recognize transfers in and transfers out of Level 1 and Level 2 at the end of the reporting period. See Note 3 for fair value hierarchy disclosures.

Deferred Debt Issuance Costs – Expenses incurred in connection with the issuance of debt are deferred and are amortized over the term of the related financing agreements using the interest method and are presented in the balance sheet as a direct deduction from the carrying amount of that debt liability, consistent with debt discounts. Unamortized deferred debt issuance costs amounted to $460,000 at December 31, 2017. Accumulated amortization of deferred debt issuance costs were $59,000 at December 31, 2017.

Deferred Marketing Costs – Expenses incurred in connection with marketing of newly constructed apartments are deferred and amortized over the estimated average life of the first generation of residents. Unamortized deferred marketing costs amounted to $68,000 at December 31, 2017, and are included in other assets in the accompanying balance sheet. Accumulated amortization of deferred marketing costs was $786,000 at December 31, 2017. Amortization expense was $45,000 for the year ended December 31, 2017.

Obligation to Provide Future Services – If the present value of future outflows to provide future services, adjusted for certain noncash items, exceeds the present value of future cash in-flows, a liability is recognized. An evaluation of the future service benefit obligation for residents indicated that a liability was not considered necessary at December 31, 2017. The discount rate used to calculate the obligation to provide future services is 7% for 2017.

Types of Entrance Fees – The Care and Residence Agreements between the Corporation and the residents provide for the payment of an entrance fee. Entrance fees received by the Corporation are categorized into two types: initial entrance fees and entrance fees from reoccupancy, which are recorded as either rebatable entrance fees due, entrance fees subject to refund, or entrance fees non-refundable in the accompanying balance sheets. Initial entrance fees, which are the initial fees on new or expanded facilities, are used to provide funds for acquisition and construction of physical facilities, debt retirement, and to defray anticipated deficits in the operations of new homes for a period of time. Entrance fees from reoccupancy in existing homes are used for general purposes, including capital expenditures, support of operations (including benevolence), and funding of reserves.

Refund Policy on Entrance Fees – The Care and Residence Agreement provides the resident with the right to a refund of the entrance fee, less 2.0% for each month of residency for 44 months after the initial reduction of 12% of the original fee, under certain circumstances. In certain cases, upon the move out of a resident, the unamortized balance of the entrance fee on a contractual basis is payable to the resident.

The Corporation also offers contract options whereby 50% to 100% of the entrance fee is rebatable at death or termination of the contract and subsequent re-occupancy of the apartment, although the majority of outstanding contracts are between 80% to 90% rebatable. At December 31, 2017, $48,437,000 of the entrance fees related to these types of contracts are contractually rebatable, and are presented as rebatable entrance fees due in the accompanying balance sheet. Included in this amount is $540,000 in entrance fee rebates due pending apartment re-occupancy, $672,000 in entrance fee rebates due pending the move-out of residents in higher levels of care and re-occupancy of their apartment, and $5,950,000 in entrance fee rebates due pending only the move-out of residents currently residing in higher levels of care at December 31, 2017. Non-rebatable amounts amortized to income relating to these types of contracts were $1,076,000 for the year ended December 31, 2017.

At December 31, 2017, the Corporation had non-refundable entrance fees of $6,493,000 related to entrance fees received that will be recognized as revenue in future years. Additionally, at December 31, 2017, the Corporation had entrance fees subject to refund of $577,000, which will be recognized as revenue in future years, unless refunded.

Actual refunds and rebates of entrance fees were $6,156,000 for the year ended December 31, 2017. Based on historical experience, management expects to pay refunds in future years of approximately $6,000,000 per year.

Interest Rate Cap – The Corporation has utilized interest rate swaps and caps as part of its overall debt management policy. The Corporation accounts for these interest rate swaps and caps in accordance with FASB Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) Topic 815, Derivatives and Hedging. The topic requires that all derivatives be carried at fair value on the balance sheet. Changes in the fair value of derivatives were recorded each period as a change in net deficit. The Corporation entered into an interest rate cap agreement on February 1, 2016 (see Note 8).

Net Assets – The Corporation reports three classifications of net assets. A description of each classification of net assets is as follows:

Unrestricted Net Assets – Unrestricted net assets include unrestricted contributions and income earned on unrestricted funds, and amounts for which restrictions have expired.

Temporarily Restricted Net Assets – Temporarily restricted net assets include net assets subject to donor imposed stipulations that may, or will be met, either by actions of the Corporation and/or the passage of time. When a restriction is met, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of operations and changes in net deficit as net assets released from restrictions. At December 31, 2017, the Corporation had no temporarily restricted net assets.

Permanently Restricted Net Assets – Permanently restricted net assets include net assets subject to donor imposed stipulations that they be maintained permanently by the Corporation. At December 31, 2017, the Corporation had no permanently restricted net assets.

Revenue Recognition – Non-rebatable entrance fees are initially recorded as either entrance fees non-refundable or entrance fees subject to refund and, to the extent they are not otherwise refunded, are amortized to income using the straight-line method over the remaining life expectancy of the resident. The life expectancy of each resident is updated annually based upon the 2000 Group Annuity Mortality Table.

Monthly service fees, ancillary and other services fees are reported at the estimated net realizable amounts from residents, third-party payors, and others for services rendered, including estimated retroactive adjustments under reimbursement agreements with third-party payors. Accounts receivable over 150 days past their contractual due date are fully reserved.

The Corporation provides health care services primarily to its residents. Revenues from the Medicare and Medicaid program accounted for approximately 14% of the Corporation's total operating revenue less amortization of entrance fees for the year ended December 31, 2017. Laws and regulations governing the Medicare and Medicaid programs are complex and subject to interpretation. The Corporation believes that it is in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations. Compliance with such laws and regulations can be subject to future government review and interpretation as well as significant regulatory action, including fines, penalties, and exclusion from the Medicare and Medicaid programs.

Contributions – The Corporation participates in the American Baptist Homes Foundation of the West (“ABHFOW”) fundraising activity. Gifts and bequests to the Corporation are credited to the Corporation's fund with ABHFOW. In addition, upon maturity, deferred gifts such as gift annuities and charitable remainder trusts are also credited to the Corporation's fund. Funds held by ABHFOW that the ABHFOW board has designated for the Corporation amounted to approximately $1,305,000 at December 31, 2017. ABHFOW retains a legal right to redirect the use of unrestricted endowment funds. Board practice since inception has been to designate earnings distributions on funds for community benevolence needs. The Corporation receives distributions from ABHFOW based upon the market value of the twelve-quarter rolling average of the Corporation's endowment fund at a current rate of 3.5%. This rate is subject to change based upon the ABHFOW board's action. Distribution income for the year ended December 31, 2017 was approximately $38,000, and is reflected in other operating revenues in the accompanying statement of operations and changes in net deficit.

The Corporation and ABHFOW account for contributions in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 958-605, Not-for-Profit Entities – Revenue Recognition. In accordance with the guidance, contributions received are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted support, depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. All donor-restricted support is reported as an increase in temporarily or permanently restricted net assets depending on the nature of the restrictions. When a donor restriction expires (that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished), temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of operations and changes in net deficit as net assets released from restrictions. However, if a restriction is fulfilled in the same time period in which the contribution is received, the Corporation and ABHFOW report the support as unrestricted.

The Corporation reports gifts of property and equipment (or other long-lived assets) as unrestricted support unless explicit donor stipulations specify how the donated assets must be used. Gifts of long-lived assets with explicit restrictions that specify how the assets are to be used and gifts of cash or other assets that must be used to acquire long-lived assets are reported as restricted support. Absent explicit donor stipulations about how long those long-lived assets must be maintained, the Corporation reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired long-lived assets are placed in service.

Benevolence – The Corporation provides services to residents who meet certain criteria under its benevolence policy without charge or at amounts less than its established rates. Partial payments to which the Corporation is entitled from public assistance programs on behalf of residents that meet the Corporation's benevolence criteria are reported as revenues. Because the Corporation does not normally pursue collection of amounts determined to qualify as benevolence, they are reported as revenue. Benevolence was provided in the amount of $254,000 for the year ended December 31, 2017.

Contractual Allowances – A portion of the Corporation's revenues is subject to discounts under contracts with third-party payors. These discounts are reported as contractual allowances and were $653,000 for the year ended December 31, 2017.

Performance Indicator – "Loss from operations" as reflected in the accompanying statement of operations and changes in net deficit is the performance indicator. Loss from operations includes all changes in unrestricted net assets (deficit) other than noncash changes in unrealized losses on investments.

Workers' Compensation Plan – The Corporation participates in the State of Arizona's fully insured workers' compensation program as well as receiving safety program support from ABHOW. The Corporation's expense for this coverage is reflected as a component of the benefit burden applied to payroll. Amounts charged to the Corporation for the workers' compensation program were $123,000 for the year ended December 31, 2017.

Professional Liability Insurance – The Corporation has professional liability insurance through a pooled program provided by ABHOW. ABHOW has secured claims-made policies for malpractice and general liability insurance with a self-insured retention of $150,000 for the year ended December 31, 2017. At December 31, 2017, the Corporation had a remaining liability of approximately $498,000 as its best estimate of the cost of known claims and claims incurred but not reported. The liability is included in accounts payable and accrued expenses on the accompanying balance sheet. Related insurance recovery receivables of $348,000 are recorded under resident accounts and other receivables in the accompanying balance sheet at December 31, 2017.

Tax-Exempt Status – The Corporation is an Arizona nonprofit public benefit tax-exempt corporation as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and has been granted tax-exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service and the Arizona Department of Revenue.

The Corporation assesses uncertain tax positions in accordance with the provisions of the FASB ASC Topic 740-10, Income Taxes. The Corporation recognizes the tax benefit from uncertain tax positions only if it is more likely than not that the tax positions will be sustained on examination by the tax authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefit is measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The Corporation recognizes interest and penalties related to income tax matters in operating expenses. At December 31, 2017, there were no such uncertain tax positions.

NOTE 3 – FAIR VALUE

FASB ASC Topic 820 defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. FASB ASC Topic 820 also establishes a fair value hierarchy which requires an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value. The standard describes three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

- Level 1 Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2 Observable inputs other than Level 1 prices, such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities; quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities; or net asset value per share (or its equivalent) with the ability to redeem the investments in the near term.
- Level 3 Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the assets or liabilities.

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for instruments measured at fair value on a recurring basis and recognized in the accompanying financial statements, as well as the general classification of such instruments pursuant to the valuation hierarchy:

Investments – Where quoted market prices are available in an active market, securities are classified within Level 1 of the valuation hierarchy. Level 1 securities include cash and cash equivalents held for investment, mutual funds, domestic corporate debt securities, and U.S. government securities. If quoted market prices are not available, then fair values are estimated by using pricing models, quoted prices of securities with identical characteristics or discounted cash flows.

Cash and Cash Equivalents – The carrying amount approximates fair value.

Notes and Bonds Payable – The fair value of notes and bonds payable is estimated based on discounted cash flow analyses, based on the Corporation’s current incremental borrowing rates for similar types of borrowing arrangements.

The following table presents the fair value measurements of assets recognized in the accompanying balance sheet measured at fair value on a recurring basis and the level within the FASB ASC Topic 820 fair value hierarchy in which the fair value measurements fall at December 31, 2017 (in thousands):

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Fair Value
Investments
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 1,886	$ -	$ -	$ 1,886
Mutual funds	501	-	-	501

U.S. government securities	4,802	-	-	4,802
Total	$ 12,266	$ -	$ -	$ 12,266

The following table presents estimated fair values of the Corporation’s financial instruments in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 825, Financial Instruments at December 31, 2017 (in thousands):

	Carrying Amount	Fair Value
Cash and cash equivalents - unrestricted	$ 6,638	$ 6,638
Notes and bonds payable	$ 59,167	$ 59,252

Considerable judgment is required to develop estimates of fair value, and the estimates presented are not necessarily indicative of the amounts that the Corporation would realize in a current market exchange. The use of different market assumptions and/or estimation methods could have a material effect on the estimated fair values. The estimates presented are based on pertinent information available to management at December 31, 2017. Current estimates of fair value may differ significantly from the amounts presented.

On December 15, 2015, the Corporation entered into a direct placement financing with Washington Federal to replace Santander. The five-year facility with renewal options included a key provision that ABHOW make a $10,000,000 subordinated note to the Corporation bearing interest at 4% to be used for a $9,000,000 partial paydown of existing primary debt with the remainder being utilized for liquidity and debt issuance costs. Key covenants include a minimum 30% cash to primary debt ratio, debt service coverage of 1.25 times, and a debt service guaranty from ABHOW at an initial level of $3,500,000. Opportunities for reductions in the spread over 70% of one-month LIBOR and the guaranty amount are available for increased levels of liquidity.

ABHOW advanced $750,000 in fiscal year 2014 to fund the completion of refurbishments on The Terraces of Phoenix campus and approximately $250,000 to provide for the costs of issuance for the new credit facility. In conjunction with the December 2015 replacement financing, these advances were converted into a $1,000,000 subordinated note bearing interest at 4%. As of September 29, 2003, due to the transfer of sole membership of the Corporation from ABHOW to Cornerstone, $12,000,000 of funds previously advanced by ABHOW to support the Corporation's operating and capital needs were retained in the form of a note payable to ABHOW from the Corporation. Based on the Corporation's projected cash flows, payments on the notes payable are not anticipated until 2030. Repayment of the note is subordinate to the 2015 bonded indebtedness.

Scheduled maturities of notes and bonds payable are as follows (in thousands):

Year Ending December 31,
2018	$ 1,062
2019	1,095

NOTE 7 – COMPLIANCE WITH FINANCIAL COVENANTS

The Corporation suffered losses before and throughout the redevelopment process. The net accumulated deficit at December 31, 2017 was $51,544,000. Management plans to reduce the magnitude of future deficits by continuing to increase occupancy while containing growth in operational costs. Management intends to achieve this improved occupancy by continuing to offer competitive pricing and attractive contract incentives for rapid move-ins. To this end, the Corporation achieved 202 out of 209 (96.7%) residential living apartments occupancy at December 31, 2017. In addition, positioning the Corporation to generate positive cash flow from turnover entrance fees in the future will enhance the Corporation's liquidity while providing the source of funds for principal retirement and capital expenditures.

NOTE 8 – INTEREST RATE CAP

In connection with the issuance of the Series 2015 bonds, the Corporation entered into an interest rate cap agreement with Commonwealth Bank of Australia to manage interest rate risk on $18,700,000 of its Series 2015 bonds. The agreement establishes that when 70% of the one month LIBOR rate exceeds 2.5%, the Terraces of Phoenix is reimbursed for the excess by the counterparty to the transaction. The agreement expires in February 2026.

The net effect of this interest rate cap was an increase in interest expense of approximately $41,000 for the year ended December 31, 2017.

The change in the fair value of the interest rate cap for the year ended December 31, 2017 was a decrease of $217,000.

NOTE 9 – EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS

Defined Benefit Pension Plan – The Corporation's employees with service prior to December 31, 2002, were eligible to participate in ABHOW's defined benefit retirement plan, which covers certain employees who are at least 21 years of age and have completed one year of service. Benefits were based on years of service and a percentage of the employee's compensation. Employees vest after completion of five years of service. ABHOW's Board of Directors approved the freezing of the plan for all nonunion employees effective December 31, 2002, and for union employees effective September 30, 2003. Contributions are intended to provide for benefits attributed to service to the date of freezing. In March 2015, ABHOW provided terminated vested plan participants with a time limited option to terminate their participation in the plan in exchange for a lump sum payout.

In late calendar year 2016, the majority of the scheduled plan termination was consummated, with an estimated outstanding pension termination liability of $2,350,000 remaining at December 31, 2016. Remaining plan assets of $926,000 at December 31, 2016, plus a final cash contribution from the Corporation of $341,000 in June 2017, were used to satisfy the remaining liability. As a result of the aforementioned actions taken as part of the plan termination in 2016, $10,584,000 of previously unrecognized net actuarial losses was recognized by ABHOW as part of employee benefits. ABE's allocated share of this cost was $989,000.

NOTE 10 – COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Corporation is party to various claims and legal actions in the normal course of business. In the opinion of management, based upon current facts and circumstances, the resolution of these matters is not expected to have a material adverse effect on the financial position of the Corporation.

NOTE 11 – FUNCTIONAL EXPENSES

Management of the Corporation presents operating expenses in its accompanying statement of operations and changes in net deficit by natural class categories. Operating expenses classified by functional categories for the year ended December 31, 2017, are as follows (in thousands):

Property	2,832
Administrative and general	2,602
Resident services and activities	1,097
Marketing and advertising	1,019
Housekeeping and laundry services	839
 Total operating expenses	 $ 18,625

NOTE 12 – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Subsequent events are events or transactions that occur after the balance sheet date but before financial statements are issued. The Corporation recognizes in the financial statements the effects of all subsequent events that provide additional evidence about conditions that existed at the date of the balance sheet, including the estimates inherent in the process of preparing the financial statements. The Corporation's financial statements do not recognize subsequent events that provide evidence about conditions that did not exist at the date of the balance sheet but arose after the balance sheet date and before financial statements are issued.

As previously disclosed in Note 1, on March 5, 2018, amendments to the articles of incorporation of ABE took effect and the Corporation's name was changed to HumanGood Arizona.

At the March 7, 2018 board meeting for HumanGood Arizona (formerly American Baptist Estates, Inc.) and HumanGood Washington (formerly American Baptist Homes of Washington), management was authorized to take all steps necessary to create a National Obligated Group by creating a master trust indenture under which both HumanGood Arizona and HumanGood Washington's debt are cross collateralized. The intention is for a refinancing of all of the outstanding bank debt with an approximately equal weighted mix of fixed rate bonds and variable rate bank indebtedness. The aggregate financing is anticipated to be approximately $75 million and will generate net proceeds of approximately $20 million to be used to retire portions of subordinate indebtedness. The transaction is anticipated to close during May 2018.
